Melvin Tyrone Dokes

Melvin Tyrone has lived in South Bend Indiana all his life. He started arts back in high school and continued pottery after he graduated. He has been practicing pottery for 17 plus years and has taken numerous classes at the museum and learned so much from various instructors. Melvin specializes in making large pottery and has loved creating large work since his high school days. Melvin joined our summer camps in 2018 to share his love for making large work and introduce students to his methods.
