Esther is passionate about all things arts and crafts. She enjoys using art to build community and connections with other people. Art is a physical language that she hopes everyone gets the chance to become fluent in. Esther has a Bachelor’s of Science from the University of Oregon School of Architecture and Allied Arts with concentrations in Fiber and Painting.